WHEATON'S MEN

Land in Gulf of Lingayen and Find Enemies.

The Rebels were Routed After Brief Desperate Fighting—Slight Details.

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 9.—General Wheaton's men had a fierce fight soon after landing at the port in the gulf of Lingayen. The Filipinos lay in trenches and met the advance of the Americans with heavy firing.
The infantry by charging gallantly routed the rebels and drove them away after a brief and desperate fight. Two Americans were wounded. The Fili-pine casualties are not yet reported.
When the dispatch boat left General Wheaton's men had already begun the advance eastward.

REBELS FLED.

Gen. McArthur's Forces Take Mahalaat Without Loss.

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 9.—Gen. McArthur has occupied Mahalaat. His line, including the Twelfth, Seventeenth and Nineteenth infantry, and part of the Fourth cavalry, is extended three miles in front of Angeles. In a good tactical position.
Major Bell took Mahalaat. Being ordered to reconnoitre yesterday until he located the enemy, he pushed into their camp, driving out two companies of insurgents and killing several Filipino officers. The Americans suffered no loss.

LOW RIVER AT EVANSVILLE.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 9.—The Ohio river at this port is lower now than it has been at this time of the year for many years past.
On account of the low water one of this city's largest industries is seriously affected. The saw mill men are unable to gather in a supply of logs to run their mills, consequently many of the mills have shut down till the river gets to a better stage.

TO PREVENT A SPREAD.

BERRLIN, Nov. 9.—The Cologne Gazette asserts the object of the conference between the czar and Kaiser at Potsdam will be to discuss the means for preventing the Anglo-Berlin war from spreading beyond South Africa and causing a general European conflict. The Kaiser's visit to England, says the paper, will be a sequel to the conference and he will there seek to settle the question of delimitation of the war area definitely.

TRYING CONSPIRATORS.

PARIS, Nov. 9.—The senate sits as a high court justice today to try the conspirators against state who were brought before that body to hear the indictments against them read.

The Election News the Sun Today Has Is Very Pointed.

TAYLOR GIVEN THE VICTORY

With Reports From all the Counties in the Majority Is Over 500.

OFFICIAL COUNT TOMORROW

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 9, 3:48 P. M.—Gen Taylor is undoubtedly elected by four to five thousand.

Goebel claims the victory and will attempt to steal the result by padding the returns from all the counties.

The Post puts Taylor's majority at 4,200.

The Legislature is Democratic, but is anti-Goebel and anti-Blackburn.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 9.—It will require the official returns Friday to arrive at any satisfactory conclusion as to which party has won in the state election. Complete returns this morning make Gen. Taylor 546 votes ahead. A contest is certain and two inaugurations most probable. Plenty bloodshed is predicted.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 9.—At the Republican headquarters Taylor's election is still claimed by upward of 5,000.
All counties have reported in some way, but not satisfactory. The Republicans understand the Goebels' game of claims and are watching them close, feeling sure a steal is on foot and will be worked if possible. Tomorrow the official count will be made and then will come out the facts of the elections. The Republicans are determined to have justice and will not submit to anything else.

Goebel Claims.

Windy dispatches were used here today to establish Goebel's election.
Nothing was given to justify the claims except the hope that if any stealing could be done the telegrams would pave the way.
The Courier-Journal this morning claims Goebel's election by 2,000. If his other showings were as inaccurate as those from this precinct, the claims are just as inaccurate as they possibly could be.

TWO OPINIONS.

One Is Expressed By Pauncefote and Other By Carnegie.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Lord Julian Pauncefote, British ambassador to the United States and Andrew Carnegie arrived from Europe today. The former says the war with the Boers is approved throughout Great Britain and he predicts when Gen. Buller arrives to relieve White the situation will clear up at once. Mr. Carnegie denounces the war and says it is on a par "with our attack on the Filipinos." Carnegie denies that he intends to become an English subject.

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Officers to Be Elected This Evening at the Meeting.

The Commercial club meets tonight and the regular annual election of officers will take place.
There will probably be few, if any changes.

No secretary is appointed, as he is elected for a term embracing his good behavior.

The Commercial club has proven one of Paducah's best organizations, and has done incalculable good in advancing the interests of Paducah during its year of existence.

DODGED BUT CAUGHT.

Joseph Elmore, a young man of Mayfield, wanted here for several months on a charge of grand larceny, was caught this afternoon by officer Orr.
He is alleged to have been an accomplice in the theft of about $75 taken from A. J. Carter.

Max Woods was charged with complicity, and is out on bond. Elmore was remanded to jail in default of a $300 bond.

MUST HANDS OFF.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 9.—The military cabinet, by order of the Kaiser, has denied the district generals not to permit German officers, whether in active service or on furlough, to take part in the South African campaign or to do anything tending to violate Germany's strict neutrality.

FAIRLY GOOD NIGHT.

PATTERSON, Nov. 9.—The rumor started last night that Vice President Hobart suffered a sinking spell during last night was denied at the Hobart home this morning. It was also given out he had passed fairly a good night.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair tonight and Friday.

POLICE COURT.

Unimportant Cases Tried This Morning by Judge Sanders.

There was a brief session of the police court this morning.
Jeff Carter, charged with striking a woman at his saloon, was acquitted, the evidence showing that she was trying to push her way in after a man with a picture she claimed he had belonged to her.

Hal Hall was fined $20 and costs for gaming and a warrant against Coleman Alexander was dismissed.
Jeremiah McGlass, a tobacco maker of St. Louis, who was here looking for a job and applied for lodging at police headquarters, was arraigned, but ordered to get out of town unless he got work today.

Frank Grundy was fined $5 and costs for indecent exposure. Yesterday he claimed that he was the wrong man, but his memory seems to have revived since then.

J. I. Langston was fined $1 and costs for using insulting language towards a colored man at the Lobb-Bloom hotel. The man was insolent to him and this was considerable provocation.

Harry Bushing, a tramp from Cincinnati, was charged with trespass by going to sleep on an I. C. switch engine. He claimed that a man with a lantern gave him permission to go to sleep on the engine and keep warm, and he did it. Watchman Tolbert found him there and arrested him, saying that no one had authority to give him permission to go to sleep on the engine, and that it was a practice the road was trying to break up, as it was dangerous. Judge Sanders said he would stick by the railroad company and fined the vagrant $10 and costs.

GEN. WHITE

Seems Able to Hold Ladysmith Against the Boers.

The Latest From the Besieged City Was Received By Carrier Pigeon.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—General White in a message from Ladysmith, by pigeon, dated November 5, reports the list of wounded in the Ladysmith battle, which was sent him by the Boers.
General White adds the Boers discontinued the bombardment Saturday and Sunday and up to time the message was sent. It was expected a reconnaissance of the bombardment that day.

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 9.—Some of the wounded Gordon Highlanders from the battle of Bladlaagte have arrived here from Durban. They were shot by the Boers after the latter had shown four flags of truce and the British bugler had sounded "cease firing."

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 9.—Pretoria advises say President Kruger is not disturbed by the war news. He is usually found sitting on stoop of his residence placidly smoking.

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 9.—A Queenstown, Cape Colony, message says Colesburg, on Port Elizabeth railroad, just south of Orange river, has not been captured by the Boers, as first reported. The Orange Free State troops evidently intend to act entirely on the defensive.

AN EDITOR DEAD.

H. M. Saunders, of Bardwell, Passed From Life Here Today.

Mr. Hugh M. Saunders, for many years the editor and owner of the Bardwell Star, from which he but lately retired, died at 1 o'clock this afternoon in Paducah. He expired at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. J. W. Overstreet, corner of Twelfth and Jefferson streets, and the cause of his death was consumption, from which he had long suffered. Mr. Saunders was a worthy man, with a wide acquaintance, and where known was held in high esteem. He left a third wife and perhaps several children and a brother, Major Saunders, of Graves county. The remains will be taken to Bardwell tomorrow for interment.

WILL MARRY HERE.

Mr. G. E. Dalton, of Hopkinsville, and Miss Kate Breathitt, of the same place, but who is now a guest of Mr.
M. Griffin, at Sixth and Court, will be married here tonight. Mr. Dalton came in this morning. They will reside in Hopkinsville.

HIT WITH A HAMMER.

Henry Johnson and Bob Caldwell, who work at Bob Parker's blacksmith shop, engaged in a dispute this morning over a small debt. Caldwell was struck in the head with a hammer and painfully, though not seriously injured.

Stronger Than Steel.

It is difficult to realize that so fragile looking a concern as a spider's web is proportionately one of the strongest things in existence. The ordinary spider's thread would support without breaking a weight of three grains. Now a bar of steel one inch in diameter will sustain fifty tons. If you take the diameter of a spider's thread, and calculate what weight the same thread in an inch in diameter would support, the conclusion arrived at is no less than seventy-four tons, which means that the strength of the seemingly feeble thread is, as near as possible, as much as one and a half times that of the steel.

DEWEY WEDS

The Admiral and Mrs. Hazen Were Made Husband and Wife Today.

WAS AGAIN AHEAD OF TIME

Married Week Earlier Than Expected and at Church and Not at Home.

NOW OFF ON A BRIDAL TOUR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Admiral Dewey and Mrs. Mildred Hazen were united in marriage this morning at 9:30 o'clock in Washington. The marriage was a very quiet event. It, too, was unexpected to a great extent, the idea being that it would occur some time next week.

Yesterday the application for the license was made by Lieutenant Hardy H. Caldwell, U. S. N., Admiral Dewey's secretary in person. The information furnished the clerk and set forth in the license is that Admiral Dewey is 61 years old and his bride-elect 48; that both are citizens of the United States, and that in the case of each party there was one former marriage. To these statements Lieutenant Caldwell was required to make oath.

Dewey and Mrs. Mildred Hazen were married at St. Paul's Christian church, Father Mackin officiating, at 9:30 this morning. At 10 the admiral and wife drove to the residence of Mrs. Washington McLean, the bride's mother. The admiral helped his wife out of the carriage and stepped into the hall with her for a few minutes. He afterwards re-entered the carriage and drove away. Mrs. Washington McLean and her other daughter, Mrs. Lullow, drove up to the residence a few minutes later.

At 11 o'clock Admiral Dewey returned to the bride's residence and partook of a quiet wedding breakfast.
The only witnesses to the marriage ceremony were Mrs. Dewey's mother and sister and Mr. Dewey's secretary, Lieutenant Caldwell.

The celebration of the nuptials was at St. Paul's church instead of Mrs.
McLean's home, and was a great surprise, but was evidently due to throw the curious public off the track.

Admiral and Mrs. Dewey left this afternoon for New York. They did not travel in a special car but occupied seats in a drawing room car.
There was no demonstration at the depot, only the gate keepers and a few others recognizing the hero of Manila as he hurriedly passed through the gate with his bride.

ARE TO SOON WED.

A Golconda Belle and a Paducah Business Man Happy Ones.

Friends here are in receipt of cards announcing the marriage of Miss Helen Elizabeth Rose, daughter of Mr. James A. Rose, secretary of state of Illinois, and Mr. James P. Smith, the well-known young wholesale grocer of this city. The wedding will take place at 8 p. m. November 22, in the First Presbyterian church at Golconda, Rev.
W. E. Cave, of this city, officiating.
After which a reception will be given at the home of the bride's father, the hours being 8:30 to 11 o'clock. The couple will take an extensive bridal tour, going to Florida and to Havana.
After December 10th they will be at home to their friends at their residence, 430 Washington street, in this city.

This marriage is going to be a grand social event and will be attended by a host of friends outside of Golconda.
The personnel of the highly esteemed and widely known contracting parties needs no mention.

The attendants for this event will be: Maid of honor, Miss Allie Belle Sanders, of this city; best man, Mr.
A. S. Thompson, of this city; bride's maids, Miss Margaret Sholtz, of Indianapolis, and Miss Effie McCoy, of Golconda; ushers, R. Rudy, of Paducah, Otto Thompson, of Golconda, and Charles Rose and Will B. Wines, of Springfield, Ill.

Congratulations though early are in order.

DOG IN A DIVORCE COURT.

A Bloodhound at Bucharest Picks Up a Bit of Evidence.

A certain well-known inhabitant of Bucharest is the director of a manufacture which, being situated in the outskirts of the city, he goes to early each morning, returning late in the afternoon. The director was some few years ago married to the daughter of a rich merchant. He also possesses a splendid bloodhound, which had become very clever in finding and bringing any lost object of his master or mistress.
Little did the director, when teaching his dog this trick, fancy to what purpose he was doing it. Among his intimate friends he reckoned a certain banker, and visiting him one afternoon, accompanied by his dog, he resulted of his dog the waste paper basket, and then bring out from among the scraps of paper a green silk handkerchief, which seemed strangely familiar to him. He seized it and pocketed it without the banker noticing, and soon after took his leave. The banker was packed off to her parents and proceedings for a divorce commenced.
She ultimately confessed to having given the handkerchief as a memento, which the banker had thrown into his waste paper basket to be found by the intelligent bloodhound.

MUSIC IN SCHOOLS.

Nothing Has Been Heard From Miss Sachs Yet.

Nothing has been heard from Miss Alice Sachs, music teacher in the Paducah public schools, who went to Louisville, and it is understood from the Louisville papers has resigned. Before leaving Miss Sachs expressed her intention to relinquish her position, but was asked to recomsider, and it is presumed she considered it a resignation.
Miss Charlotte Fields, formerly music teacher, is an applicant for the place again.
The matter of placing a piano in the high school has not yet been decided by the board of education, and was left open until the next meeting.

NEW TIME CARD

Local Officials Receive Details of Changes Made.

Trains Will Be Run Around the "Y"—Other Railroad
Notes.

Superintendent W. J. Harahan, of the Illinois Central, has sent out a circular to all the officials, noting the changes in the schedule which go into effect Sunday morning at 7 o'clock.

They are:

No. 201 leaves Louisville at 12:01
p. m. and arrives at Paducah at 6 p. m.
This train now arrives at 2:30 p. m.
No. 202 leaves Paducah at 11:45
a. m. and reaches Louisville at 5:45
p. m. It now leaves here at 2:20 p. m.
No. 203 leaves Louisville at 9:40
p. m. and arrives at Paducah at 3:47 a. m. There is no change in this train, it now arriving at this time.

No. 204 leaves Paducah at 1:20
a. m. and reaches Louisville at 7:45
a. m. There is also no change in this train.

The above are the "fast trains," or "annon balls," and will all be run around the "Y." It will be seen that they reduce the time between Paducah and Louisville to less than six hours, a reduction of nearly an hour.

Trainmaster Flynn stated this morning, in answer to a question, that until the new depot is complete the I. C. will run a transfer train from the Union depot out to the new depot for the four fast trains, which will not come into the city. The train will leave the Union depot, with baggage car and coach, unload on the new depot platform, and when the trains arrive will stop only long enough to load and unload, and the transfer train will then run back to the Union depot with the mail, baggage and passengers transferred.

Other changes are to be made as follows:

No. 221 leaves Louisville at 7:45
a. m. and arrives here at 4:30 p. m.
This is the train that was taken off some time ago. It formerly ran between Louisville and Fulton and arrived here about 6 p. m. It is on this train that the Louisville morning papers will arrive. This will be very damaging to their sales, as it will place them here after all the other morning papers.

No. 222 will leave Paducah at 7:45 a. m. and arrive at Louisville at 4:45 p. m. These two trains now leave the respective places at the same time, but go only as far as Central City.
No. 231 will leave Louisville at 5 p. m. and arrive at Central City at 10 p. m.

No. 232 will leave Central City at 4:15 a. m. and arrive in Louisville at 9 a. m.

The fast trains will make connection at Louisville with the Washington and New York flyers, and at Princeton the connection with the Evansville division trains will be good.
As on as the new depot is opened the trains will all be run around the "Y."

Trainmaster Flynn, Yardmaster Sur-ran and the dispatchers will move their offices to the new yards Saturday. The new yards, however, will not be completed for two or three weeks.

A letter from Superintendent Har-ahan states that the inconvenience of people will be reduced just as much as possible, and while the road realizes that the public will be inconvenienced by the change for a time, it will be only for as short a period as possible, and everything possible will be done to complete the depot and have facilities for getting there.

The trains 221 and 222 will run from Louisville to Fulton and from Fulton and Louisville. This will restore the old Fulton accommodation, enabling people to come from Fulton and intervening points and remain the entire day, arriving at 7:45 a. m. and returning at 4:45 p. m.

Superintendent of Machinery William Renshaw, of the I. C., was in the city yesterday afternoon until 6 p. m. He left for Chicago on the 6:15 train over the St. Louis division, and had been to Fulton to inspect the two big engines, the "biggest in the world."

Flagman Hicks, at Sixth and the Union depot, is on the sick list.

MINSTRELS TONIGHT.

The Barlow minstrels arrived in town this morning and gave a fine street parade at noon which was witnessed by a large crowd. The company will appear at the opera house tonight and all lovers of first class minstrelsy should not fail to see this famous company.

ELECTION FIGHTS.

Christy Gullatt, an election officer in Magoffin county, was shot and fatally wounded while trying to suppress a fight.

At Biggest voting precinct, in Madison county, a difficulty took place between James Herring and James Kelly, when the latter struck the former with a stone, fracturing his skull. He will die. Kelly was arrested.

In a row at Bee Springs, Edmonson county, Will Meredith, Bill Anglin, Jake Meredith and Jake Vannette were all seriously, if not fatally, injured by a shooting and cutting.

James Kerrick was killed in an election quarrel in Bath county.

A difficulty occurred at Lancaster, in which Ben Baker was shot twice by Huston Clark. The trouble began early in the afternoon, when Baker shot at Clark, but missed him.

A convention of Mormon elders from Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee and the Carolinas has been called to meet at Knoxville November 19 and 21.

THURSDAY, NOV. 9, 1899.

Goebl's trachery brought its own reward.

If Blackburn goes down with the king it will be no more than the fate he sought.

The Republican party grows better with age. The Democratic party clearly weakens, as its days lengthen.

It is generally believed that the president will advocate the annexation of the Philippines in his next message.

The Democrats should take their defeat with better grace. They set the pace and lost. Their squealing is babyish.

Prosperity no doubt cut a big figure in the election Tuesday. Increased Republican majorities are reported from all sections but Nebraska.

How ridiculous was the talk of Ohio going Democratic is made clear by the returns. The 1897 Republican plurality is almost doubled.

Many arrests for unlawful voting and actions have grown out of Tuesday's election. The guilty are to be prosecuted in spite of the Goebel election law.

New York and New Jersey have settled themselves in the Republican column. Talk of them in connection with the national contest in any other way is folly.

The Republicans won Tuesday's election and they will get the fruits of their victory. There will be no further stealing of votes and no bulldozing. There may be attempts, but there will also be regrets. The decision of the people will stand.

The Leader was a very funny paper yesterday. It was crowing as much as if it had really played a part in the late election and was a winner. It doesn't seem able to recognize the fact that it is so dead that it can't even raise a scent. But it was passing its grave yard and its whistling didn't hurt any thing.

The returns from the election Tuesday night must have "spelt" all of the O'wenboro Messenger's editorial matter. Though usually up to the moment on all such questions as results of interesting events the Messenger had not a line, yet not a word, of editorial comment on the important battle of the ballots. The Sun is candidly surprised at the Messenger. It should have taken its dose with more grace.

TUESDAY'S VICTORY.

The Louisville Post, Dem., St.: "The returns from the state are incomplete, but the estimates based upon Shackerford's vote for the remaining counties indicate the election of Taylor by a plurality."

"This is after the Goebel conspirators have done their utmost to prevent the holding of an election. They seized in advance the machinery created by the infamous Goebel bill, which Watson denounced in language none too strong when it was proposed to put it upon the statute book. It is the device of a very devil. It has proven an instrument of intolerable oppression. It has every where debauched once honorable men who have become the instruments of the most infamous gang of desperate politicians that ever cursed any state of the American union, and yet the people of Kentucky have arisen and have overthrown these conspirators. They have scattered the revolutionists. Under the shield of the law, even of the law made by these men themselves, they have brought to naught all of their crimes and all of their desperate actions, and have wiped the disgrace from the fair name of the state."

"Kentucky is redeemed—redeemed by the loyalty of her own citizens. Redemption has been made in response to the appeals to the manhood and womanhood of the state. Had the election been free and the count fair, the majority of Taylor would not have fallen short of 50,000."

"We congratulate all men who have any interest in the state of Kentucky. We congratulate especially the young men of the state that the false standards of morality in politics which were raised by Goebel and his followers have been overthrown and that our people have proclaimed that there is moral law in politics as well as in other departments of life, and that no man can seize power by force and perpetrate that power by fraud."

"The returns for the legislature show that it will be, if not Republican, at least safely anti-Blackburn and anti-Goebel. The Goebel election law will be repealed. The threatened civil legislation will be prevented, and Mr. Blackburn will not be elected senator."

"The lower house will almost certainly be Republican by a decided majority, and as many of the Democratic senators are opposed to the Goebel bill that infamous law will surely be repealed. Any change will probably be the advantage of the Republicans."

THE PEOPLE SUPREME.

Louisville Commercial St.: "The Goebel machine is smashed to smithereens. The people of Kentucky took this infamous piece of political mechanism in hand yesterday, and this morning there is not a vestige of it left to menace citizenship, to encourage a conspiracy against the right of this commonwealth. Against terrific odds they have fought and won a great battle for civil liberty. With the courts stripped of authority, with the executive officers of the state shorn of a tremendous proportion of their original power over the conduct of elections, with every part and parcel of the election machinery in the hands of a partisan commission—a body organized and mastered by Mr. Goebel himself, with appalling violations of propriety and law marking the course of events for a fortnight before the election, the law abiding and liberty loving people of Kentucky have nevertheless risen in their might and re-established citizenship, firmly fixed an orderly government in power at Frankfort, and perpetrated all of the misdeeds of law in this commonwealth. They have reasserted Kentucky manhood. They have set liberty up where servitude had threatened to take her place."

"The election of William Sylvester Taylor to the governorship, and of the remainder of the Republican state ticket to the other places of executive power, under all of the circumstances surrounding the canvass, is therefore a partisan victory in a sense merely incidental to the great movement of the people which has swept these Republicans into power while it was eliminating William Goebel and what has come to be known as Goebelism from factoring in public affairs in this state forever. The Republican organization was the agency about which an outraged and indignant people rallied for the accomplishment of their own great purpose, but the victory is of the people over their common enemy rather than of party over partisan opponents. The anti-Goebel platform upon which the canvass for the preservation of civil liberty was waged was framed in a Republican convention, but it was the utterance of the masses of the sovereign voters of Kentucky."

"That Republicans throughout the state, and that all these elevated to places of public responsibility and power fully recognize these conditions does not admit of doubt. That they will administer the government of the state with absolute fidelity to the pledges upon which they were successful at the polls yesterday is evident to every candid observer of the course of the campaign which has now been brought to so glorious a close. That they will repeat the Goebel election law, if a Republican majority has been chosen to the legislature, is as certain as the rising of tomorrow's sun."

The Democratic party is played out. This is especially true in Kentucky, where all the smart men who have not left the ranks of their own accord have been kicked out. The so-called Democrats in this last election put out a man that thousands of good men in the party could not endorse at the polls, and the result was his defeat. They will never forgive the Brown men, yet they forget there would never have been any Brown men but for the trachery of party leaders who fostered Mr. Goebel in the party when they did not want him, with his duplicity and his opposition to the best commercial interests in the state. They can call the Brown men traitors and other hard names, but down in their hearts they know that the Brown men have dared to go right by voting against a man they believed unworthy to be governor of Kentucky, and a menace to good government."

NEW COACHES.

The Illinois Central Gives Order for 28 New Passenger Cars.

The Illinois Central has ordered thirty-eight new passenger cars for its service between Chicago and New Orleans and Louisville and New Orleans. There will be two dining cars, nine chair cars, fifteen coaches, six composite and six baggage cars. All will have steel axles and platforms and will be equipped with high-speed brakes, brass dust guards, full vestibuled platforms and will be lighted with gas and heated by steam. The new equipment is the finest ever ordered for a southern road, and will be delivered January 1.

THE FEMININE OBSERVER.

From the Philadelphia Times.

A woman isn't necessarily cowardly who is frightened at a shadow these autumn twilights.

No matter how well bred a woman may be, she always takes an interest in the leading up of a patrol wagon.

Why does the condition of a woman's hair always reflect so accurately the settled or unsettled state of her mind?

When someone said there were no good Indians but dead ones, the football team had not yet been discovered.

There is real joy in the heart of the child whose mother declares there is absolutely no use trying to keep them clean.

There is nothing so delightful a woman who knows better as to be told that she doesn't apparently grow a day older.

The person who does not get to the park these days is losing a rare treat of color in the brilliant autumn leaves.

The love of a dollar is a mild temptation compared with the positively mad affection of some persons for a 5-cent piece.

Many a very fat feminine purse that looks as though it is bursting with bills, really is doing so, but they are of the unreciprocated variety.

Whenever a person gives us some good advice we always feel that it ought to have occurred in their case, but has no bearing on our own.

It is a wise woman who rather insists on a man having his little finger, instead of objecting to it. He tires of it so much sooner that way.

The short gown has become such an ordinary affair that it is a wonder that any man can be found who will turn to look after a woman wearing it.

It is really a remarkable woman who can look interested in some one else's talk when she is just dying to break in and tell something herself.

The woman who allows a man to smoke when he is walking with her gives persons the impression that she has less of an idea of the fitness of things even than he has.

A woman's real devotion to a man is shown by her ability to let him alone when she sees he doesn't want her, and to show no resentment when he is at last ready to come around.

KEEPS CURIOUS BUGS AS PETS

Yucatan Insects Are Highly Esteemed by the People.

From the Mexican Herald: Three of the most curious pets that were ever fed were brought to Mexico City the other day. They were brought there by the butler in the household of President Diaz, who has been on a trip to Yucatan. They are three bugs of a rare breed. The only place in the world in which they are found is Yucatan. The average specimen is about an inch and a half long. Its body is in two sections, resembling the bodies of some species of the beetle, and each section is covered with a stout shield or plate which is almost flat, curving but a little at the edges. When the head of the bug is placed on the microscope it looks rather intelligent and amiable. The bugs which were brought here are in a highly ornate state. Some cunning artist of Yucatan has painted shields in the Mexican national colors on the rear plates over their bodies, and highly colored bunches of flowers on the front plates, and has gilded their long, doubled-up legs. Little gold chains are attached to the middle of the rear plate, which is the larger of each bug's body. Which his bugship can be lifted up or led around. One of the bugs was presented to President Diaz, one to a Mexican lady and the other to an American lady. They are pets in the literal sense of the word. The American lady's bug is receiving all kinds of solicitous attention and seems to like it. An effort will be made to teach him some tricks. His habits and manners are being closely watched. He loves the sunshine, having been raised in the hot country, and when he is lifted by his gold chain and dropped in the full glare of the sun, with the cork of a beer bottle in front of him to munch, he seems to be supremely happy.

NEW THING IN KISSING BEES.

Virginia Young People Have a Novel Division at Parties.

From the Boston Transcript: A novel custom, started in the days of the civil war, prevails in the eastern part of Virginia. At Shepherdstown they have a picnic called "soup." Each person invited brings a dressed chicken, the host providing the vegetables. Poultry and vegetables are placed in large kettles holding from ten to twenty gallons and the combination is cooked over open fires for several hours, or until it is reduced almost to a jelly. Pepper and other seasonings are introduced. The girls and young fellows stir the soup with long-handled iron spoons, keeping up a march or walk around the kettles as they do so, and sing songs and recite poems. When a girl's spoon clicks against the spoon of a young man he is at liberty to catch and kiss her. Of course there are many lively skirmishes and a great deal of fun in the game. When the soup is done it is ladled out into plates and eaten. It is said to be delicious. The custom owes its origin to a company of Stonewall Jackson's men who were recruited in that part of the state. These ex-confederates keep up their organization. They have a reunion once a year at which they celebrate with a grand "soup." It is said that a "soup" properly gotten up should be made of stolen chickens, but the veterans had to give up foraging after the war and make a compromise by going around in search of and robbing each other's roasts by mutual understanding.

A GOOD SIGN.

The Nose of Vast Importance to the Reading of Character.

Though the other features all reveal their special characteristics, it is hopeless to try to read and balance them aright without first carefully examining the nose and allowing for the weak new or strength indicated by it. The Roman nose is unfailingly and correctly associated with will power and command; the snub variety with self-serviteness and the thin, high-bridged, hooked type with avarice. A compressed nostril is not to be wished for, as it indicates suspicion and penuriousness. When the curve is heavy the character is usually correspondingly dull and uninteresting; well defined, it points out the well-balanced mind, and perhaps also a passionate disposition easily roused and as easily calmed. The little, pointed, narrow nose proclaims itself as impudent and wanting in reverence, and when it is united to a receding chin and forehead, with eyes close to the nose, the wider the berth given the possessor of such unenviable qualities the better. So there is much, very much, in physiognomy, and one constant (not first) impressions, though not always invariably correct, may, on the whole, be trusted.

Observations
...at Random.

U. S. Deputy Marshal La Rue, who returned yesterday afternoon from the upper part of the state, where matters were warlike, had a few exciting experiences. He had been absent three weeks or longer, and his last experience was Tuesday. Several police officers in Covington were arrested by the deputy marshals, one of the latter being Mr. La Rue. The officers were taken before the U. S. commissioner and required to execute bond of $2000 for their appearance to answer the charge Wednesday.

The Cincinnati Times-Star gave a correct account of the trouble, but the Enquirer, a Democratic sheet, gave a very garbled report of the affair, and said the deputy marshals got the best of it.
There was considerable trouble at the polls, and the chief of police, who was among those arrested threatened to look up the government authorities, but this was not done.
If people who ride on street cars will notice they will discover that two-thirds, if not more, of the ladies, who stop cars, get on the wrong car to do it. Street car motormen have positive orders to stop only on the farthest crossing, or side of the street, and while it may appear to be very unpleasant for them to refuse to stop on the nearest crossing for a lady when he sees her standing there, if he violates the rules he runs the risk of getting discharged, and most motormen regard their own subsistence of more value than the rules of etiquette.
If there is anything that will cause a pretty face to assume an expression of anger and indignation, it is to have to walk across the street to the car, especially on a muddy day, when it looks so easy for the motormen to have stopped and let her on without having to get her shoes muddy. The ladies can save themselves a great deal of annoyance and embarrassment by remembering that the cars are always in the far crossing.

The reporter, who seems to enjoy with some degree of immunity the right to ask questions, impudent and otherwise, "catches it" on election day and the day thereafter. It is then that the people get even with him. Every friend he meets stops him to ask him the election news, and when it is told, if it does not suit him, he wants the reporter to stop and argue the matter with him. He is hated no less than a thousand times a day, and if he does not take it all good naturedly, he is mistaken in himself.

It is probable that few reporters do not feel that the questions they have to answer during events of this kind entirely them to ask questions free of charge all the rest of the year. They all feel that way, at any rate.

One of the witnesses in a case in the police court yesterday created a great deal of amusement during her testimony. A lady was on trial for stealing $70 from the back of a business wagon. The witness evidently had a friendly feeling for the defendant, for she insisted in telling what she said to her about it.
She sat erect, and in a loud voice said that she told the lady that if "some one would catch that chicken peddler and shake him right good, the money would be found in his sock or pocket." This made the spectatles fairly roar, but the busketter took it all good naturedly and laughed with the rest.

There is also a notice from the Lang-street Mill company, stating that it has two new planes, "run by steam." The mill was started only a short time back, and needless to say there is a vast difference in it then and now.

Mr. Twyman, the editor of the Democrat, was grandfather of Deputy County Clerk Hiram Snodley, and there are many other members of the paper preserved by the family.

An Actress' Revenge.
A curious story comes from Paris of a quarrel between two actresses at the Ambigu. It seems that a young player named Regine Martial became fiercely jealous of one of her comrades, but concealed her resentment and tried with all her powers to attach herself to her rival, so that when one day the latter complained of a sick headache Mlle. Martial instantly offered her some cachets which could not fail to work an instantaneous cure. The sick actress accepted, but did not swallow them, and on examination they were found to contain many queer ingredients, fishhooks being one of the component parts. Mlle. Martial was arrested and was kept in prison for some months, her case finally having been submitted to experts in mental diseases, who have pronounced her insane, and she will now be sent to an asylum. A strange side of the affair is that previously nobody had ever noticed anything peculiar about her conduct.

Declining an Obituary.

the following story of Indian shrewdness: Some river-drivers were working on the west branch of the Aroostook river. The logs had jammed into a nasty snarl, and no one hankered for the job of going out with a cut-dog to start the key-log. In the crew was an Indian noted for his coolness and skill.
He bossed him looked over in his direction. "Coot," he said, "go and break that jam, and I'll see that you get a nice puff in the paper." The redskin looked at the logs and then at the boss. "Dead Indian look nice on paper!"
he grunted, and walked away.

cocele, shrunken organs, nervous debility, lost manhood, night emissions, premature discharge, and all other troubles of weakness or excess. It cures any case of the difficulty, never fails to restore the organs to full natural strength and vigor. The doctor who made this wonderful discovery wants to let every man know about it. He will therefore send the receipt giving the various ingredients to be used so that all men at a trifling expense can cure themselves. He sends the receipt free, and all the reader need do to receive his name and address to L. W. Knapp, M. D., 1064 Hull Bldg., Detroit, Mich., requesting the free receipt as reported in this paper. It is a generous offer, and all men ought to be glad to have such an opportunity.

ELKS TONIGHT.
Social Session to Be Held at the Hall in Leech Building.

The Elks will enjoy a social session tonight after the performance of Barlow's minstrel at Morton's opera house.
Mr. Harry Ward, of the minstrel, will preside as chairman, and the troupe will be royally entertained by Paducah lodge. Mr. Ward has been entertained three or four times by Paducah lodge and always helps the boys have a good time.
The Elks meet in regular session before the social session, and there will be several petitions to be passed on.

W. C. T. U. MEETINGS.
The local W. C. T. U. has adopted an innovation in the way of meeting places. It will hereafter meet at the home of one of the members for a month at a time. At the expiration, the home of another member will be selected and for the next month it will meet there. The announcement of the place selected will be made every month in the newspapers.

VENDS PEANUTS AND STUDIES Street Corner Merchant Who Is an Inventive Bookworm.
One does not look to the street merchant who vend peanuts and popcorn for a high degree of literary culture, but there is at least one man who follows that occupation who knows enough to acceptably fill a professorship in the big school down by the Midway. He is a native of sunny Italy and he lives in Nashville, Tenn., but he has a box of books, one of which he reads in every leisure moment he can snatch from business.
But he will rarely talk of books; the shrewd people have a way of getting into a discussion before him, which warms him into exhibiting his learning. He speaks and reads Italian, French and English, and has a smattering of German. He has rare old chronicles, French and Italian, many editions of Shakespeare, some of them magnificently illustrated and bound.
He would go to rags if he had not money for both books in clothes, said his dark-eyed Italian wife, whose great delight is to keep his book case in good condition. He has a dozen Bibles, Greek and Latin classics, the works of Babel, Moller, Rousseau, Guizot and Victor Hugo complete, volumes written by Dante and Ariosto and Italian and English encyclopedias.
He owns few novels but has a splendid set of Dickens' works in forty-four volumes, with the original Cruikshank illustrations, which he bestowed on her eleven-year-old son, upon his daughter, of whom he is making a pianist. It would be a liberal education in English to read the English books of this library from the time of Chaucer to that of Herbert Spencer.
He is not a mere bookworm, but an intelligent and reflective reader.

Mosquitoes New to England.
From America's Magazine. English people will tell you that in their happy land there are no such things as mosquitoes. One gets pretty well used to this kind of talk, but in this particular instance the boast holds good, rather, did hold good until within the last few years. It is not alone dollars that the summer tourist has brought to London.
Mosquitoes have been imported, and they have distressed the British more than the American visitors. Probably the name is a potent one to conjure with, and some idea of what terrible things are expected of mosquitoes may be lost from this simple tale of the north. Some miners in remote workings of a Yorkshire colliery reported to the superintendent that they had been much annoyed by the bites of mosquitoes, and found a large and energetic colony of yellow-banded wasps—"sailer jackets," if you like that better.

HIGH LIGHTS.
Society contains many women who have good jewelry and bad manners.
Frequently it is better to have loved and lost than never to have lost at all.
If you regard all annoyances as wholly impersonal life is no chore at all.
Before a woman goes away for the summer she always plans what she will do when she gets back.
When some people get into society they are too busy to attend the church which gave them their start.
It is sometimes so hot that even the vainest woman doesn't care whether her nose looks shiny or not.—Chicago Record.

Accepted.
Bess—"So Tom had the impudence to kiss you last night." Tess—"Yes, but he came around today to explain. He said: 'I'm sorry I hurt you. I admitted I'm only an apology for a man, but I love you, and that was the only way I could tell you.' Bess—"The idea! Well." Tess—"Well, I accepted the apology."—Catholic Standard.

Declining an Obituary.
The Aroostook (Me.) Pioneer prints
the following story of Indian shrewdness: Some river-drivers were working on the west branch of the Aroostook
Indian noted for his coolness and skill.
He bossed him looked over in his
he grunted, and walked away.

CHINESE WANTED THE BIBLES.
But the Missionaries Found They Were Used in Making Firecrackers.
From Frank Leslie's Monthly: "Independence day reminds me," said the missionary from China, "of the most encouraging and the most disillusion-ing experience in my life. I had labored hard in the work of converting the Chinese to Christianity. The majority was unfeignedly rejoicing among all the missions in China and the churches in America when the demand for bibles in order for $4,000 bibles in one shipment. The remarkable number of new Christians thus indicated, while it occasioned much thankfulness in America, caused the heads of the missionary associations to set on foot an inquiry as to the methods employed in saving the souls of such an unusual number of Celestials, and the uses to which they put the bibles sent them. They may know that in China the majority of the firecrackers with which we celebrate our day of national independence are made by the Chinese in their homes. Contractors for fireworks give each man a certain amount of powder, and this must be made into a given number of crackers. The powder is in the manufacture he buys himself, and paper is not a cheap commodity in China. The powder furnished seldom fits the required number of crackers, but that does not disturb the Celestial in the least; he turns in his quota all the same, and the American boy in consequence invariably finds in each package of firecrackers a few that won't go off. I discovered that Yankee thrift had been absorbed by the heathen Chinese with much more readiness than Yankee morals. In contributing his labor toward our festival occasion he hit upon an expedient whereby a considerable profit accrued to himself. In other words, our great shipment of $4,000 Bibles had literally gone up in smoke. They were to be had for the asking, and the Celestial conscience seems never to have suffered a pang as to their disposal for firecracker wrappers."

Agreement with Reluctance.
Lord Justice Romer of England has swept away a venerable prece-dential case, and established a new one in its place. The old one was in a case where two judges had delivered opposite judgments, and a third observed, regularly: "I agree with my brother A for the reasons given by my brother B." This is, of course, well known, but the new one is much finer. Lord Justice Collins said: "I agree—'I also agree,' said Romer, L. J. 'One moment,' said Collins: 'I haven't finished yet,' and he proceeded to give his reasons. There was a solemn pause, and everybody looked anxiously at Romer. Firmly, if somewhat sadly, he spoke: 'I still agree.'—Detroit Free Press.
